

Privacy, Payment & Cancellation Policy

At Absolute Care Therapy, we are committed to providing high-quality care and protecting your privacy. This policy outlines our payment, cancellation, and privacy practices.

PAYMENT AND BILLING INFORMATION

Our preferred payment method is bank transfer. An invoice will be issued with a 7-day payment term.

A non-refundable deposit of $250 is required to secure your place in our group Cognitive Stimulation Therapy (CST) programs. This deposit is necessary due to the limited number of spots available, as well as the significant administration and personalisation involved. In the event of cancellation, the deposit will be used to cover administration and processing costs.

Funding and Subsidy Options:

Home Care Package (HCP) Clients

• We can directly bill your package coordinator or send invoices to you.

National Disability Insurance Scheme (NDIS) Clients

- We accept plan-managed and self-managed participants. We can bill your plan manager directly or send invoices to you.
- Important: You are responsible for your account if NDIS funding is declined or exceeded. Monitor your NDIS plan to ensure services remain within budget.

Medicare Chronic Disease Management (CDM)

- You can be assessed for a GP Management Plan. This can provide a rebate for up to 5 x sessions per year in total, however this also includes other allied health services you may like to utilise such as podiatry.
- Please see the following website for further information, or contact your GP clinic to discuss. https://www.servicesaustralia.gov.au/chronic-disease-gp-management-plans-and-team-care-arrangements?context=20

Health Insurance

- Responsibility: It is the client's responsibility to understand their insurance coverage and claim process.
- Our Medicare Provider Number for Home Visits: 6521441L
- Our Medicare Provider Number for Clinic Sessions 6521442A
- Payment: Once payment is made, a receipt will be provided for you to claim your rebate.
- The codes are: 535 (initial assessment) and 536 (extended review time).
 Provider: Amanda Burnby, Senior Physiotherapist
 ABN: 15183459578

CANCELLATION AND NO-SHOW POLICY

Cognitive Stimulation Therapy Group Programs

- Program Commitment: Due to the intensive staffing, personalisation, and resources required for our program, full commitment to the entire program is essential.
- Attendance/Refunds: Unfortunately, refunds are not available for cancellation requests or missed Group CST sessions, as the program's structure and pre-planned commitments must be maintained. We understand that life events can arise, and we will do our best to support you in continuing your CST journey by providing written summaries of any missed sessions.
- Missed Sessions: If you miss a session, we will provide a written summary of the content covered, which can be discussed with the facilitator at your next session.

Dementia Consulting and Home Visits

- 48-Hour Notice: We ask that you provide as much notice as possible to cancel or reschedule a visit. At least 48-hours' notice is required to avoid a cancellation fee.
- Cancellation Fee: If an appointment is cancelled within 48 hours of the scheduled time, and it cannot be replaced by another appointment, the full fee will apply. The time reserved for your appointment can be used to provide non-face-to-face support, including preparation, documentation, and coordination related to your care..
- No-Show Fee: If you do not attend an appointment, the full fee will be charged.
- Home Visit Policy: If a home visit is completed and you are not at home or available, the full fee plus travel time will be charged.

Outstanding Payments

• Late Fees: May apply if payment is not made within the requested time.

Price Increase for Services

- Notification Period: Clients will be informed of a planned price increase, 30 days in advance.
- Communication: Notification will be provided through email.
- Rationale: A clear explanation for the price increase will be provided.
- Discounts and Assistance: Discounts or financial assistance will be considered for clients experiencing financial hardship on a case-by-case basis.
- Regular Review: Price adjustments will be reviewed regularly to remain competitive and fair, based on market analysis and client feedback.
- Effective Date: This policy is effective from 01/02/2025.

Communication Policy

We may use your details to reach out for appointment reminders, email or letter updates, or informative pieces. Feel free to contact us at any point to be taken off the contact list.

PRIVACY INFORMATION

Collection of Information

Absolute Care Therapy will collect information which is necessary to properly assess and treat you and this may include:

- Contact Details
- Medical history
- Family medical history
- Social support in place
- Billing/account details
- Photographs to support reports or liaison with health providers

How do we Collect and Hold your Personal Information?

We will generally collect personal information about you in these ways:

- directly from you when you give us your details (eg, face-to-face, over the phone, via registration form or an online form)
- from a person responsible for you
- from a third party where we are permitted by law to do that (eg. other health care professionals involved in your care, from your health insurer, from the My Health Record system etc.).

Why do we Collect and Use Information About You?

We primarily collect and use personal information about you to provide our physiotherapy services to you and to communicate with you and others involved in your care in relation to those services.

We also sometimes use that information for other purposes, including:

- to help us manage our accounts and administrative services, including billing, arrangements with health funds, pursuing unpaid accounts, management of our IT systems and
- to conduct accreditation, quality assurance or internal audits.

When and Why Might We Share Information About You?

We may disclose information about you to others outside of our practice as permitted or required under law. This will include situations where we disclose information about you in order:

- to comply with our legal obligations (e.g. mandatory reporting under legislation, responding to a court order or subpoena)
- to consult with people or health professionals or involved in your healthcare
- to get test results from diagnostic and pathology services

Dementia Consultancy

- to claim on insurance
- to communicate with your health fund, with government and other regulatory bodies such as Medicare
- to help us manage our accounts and administrative services (eg. billing or debt recovery, arrangements with health funds, pursuing unpaid accounts etc.)
- to lessen or prevent a serious threat to a patient's life, health or safety or a serious threat to public
- health or safety
- to help in locating a missing person
- to establish, exercise or defend an equitable claim through the My Health Record
- to prepare for anticipated or existing legal proceedings
- to discharge notification obligations to liability insurers.
- Others reasons not disclosed in here,

Your Right to Seek Access and Correction of Information We Hold

You have the right to seek access to and correction of the personal information we hold about you. There may be a small fee to cover administrative costs of this.

We will normally respond to your request within 30 days. To make the request, you should contact Amanda Burnby via info@absolutecaretherapy.com.au. If you do not receive confirmation from me within 14 days, please telephone me on 0491 048 871.

If you think that the information we hold about you is not correct, let us know in writing. We will take reasonable steps to correct your personal information where the information is not accurate or up-to-date. From time to time, we may also ask you to verify that the information we hold about you is correct and current. And please notify us if your contact details change.

Security: How We Hold Your Personal Information

We take reasonable steps to protect the information we hold about you. These are designed to prevent unauthorised access, modification or disclosure and to prevent misuse and loss. This includes:

- holding information in a lockable cabinet
- holding information in secure cloud storage
- Digital software including: Halaxy https://www.halaxy.com/, Splose https://splose.com/ and Xero https://www.xero.com/au/
- Use of Security Software on all business devices
- access to information restricted on a 'need to know' basis and
- strong password protection when accessing the information on a computer.

Disclosing Information About You Overseas

We do not propose to disclose information about you to anyone overseas. If we want to transfer your personal information overseas, we will first seek your consent, unless we are required by law to do the transfer.

If You Have a Privacy-Related Concern About Us

If you have concerns about the way we've handled your privacy, let us know. You should do that in writing. We will then respond to you within 30 days.

If you are not satisfied with our response, you can refer your complaint to the Office of the Australian Information Commission; Phone: 1300 363 992.

We will update this policy from time to time, to reflect any changes in our information-handling practices or the law or both.

We will notify you of changes to the policy by displaying this on the website. www.absolutecaretherapy.com.au
